PINKO GARAGE

COLLEZIONE PRIMAVERA/ESTATE 2025

Scaldate i motori! E' tempo di PINKO Garage.

Avventuriera nell'anima, la donna PINKO sfida le convenzioni con stile e charm.

Biglietto di ritorno in mano, all'aeroporto di Rio De Janeiro, dove si è appena conclusa la sua avventura su due ruote, qualcosa la trattiene...

non è ancora l'ora di tornare a casa. New York può aspettare.

Su un ledwall appare la promo di una vera impresa in motocicletta... si parte da Buenos Aires, Argentina, e si percorrono 5.600 miglia attraverso i terreni più disconnessi, dalle dune di sabbia alle montagne, dal deserto ai laghi salati, arrivando fino alla costa cilena e ritorno.

Non resta che tornare in città e in una stradina nel quartiere bohémien di Santa Teresa trova lo spazio perfetto per dare forma al suo PINKO Garage.

La preparazione è complessa e complicata, ma l'adrenalina scorre nelle vene.

Come in ogni officina che si rispetti non può mancare la jumpsuit, in cotone color burro o in una mussola total black dalla mano languida e setosa.

Dettagli workwear punteggiano la collezione, dai vest zippati da portare a pelle come nuovi top intrisi di coolness urbana, ai mini dress con balze abbinati a leggings second skin in pizzo per un accattivante gioco di sovrapposizioni.

Il countdown è iniziato, è ora di trasferirsi nelle strade di Buenos Aires. Ci si immerge in un vero spirito competitivo con i pattern damier in classiche combinazioni di bianco o nero, ma anche in varianti rosso fuoco o giallo lime, sempre super glam e femminili: in paillette nei tank top portati con T-shirt costellate da patch o pantaloni capri con intarsi in stile racing, in pizzo su pantaloni, shorts e canotte abbinata a gonne balloon in tessuti metallizzati effetto silver foil.

L'animo sporty e active della donna PINKO si traduce in tracksuit con patch e bande a contrasto dal vibe anni Settanta e nei bomber abbinati a micro gonnelline dallo spirito girly.

Mentre in Cile tra le dune del deserto sfoggia con disinvoltura giacche in pelle con intarsi di fiamme del PINKO Garage Team, il suo lato più femminile si rivela quando sceglie abiti off-shoulder dai volumi a palloncino oppure opta per la seducente leggerezza delle bluse e dei pantaloni in devoré...

La notte stellata del Sud America, d'altronde, risveglia il suo lato più romantico.

Ma il viaggio continua, e lei da instancabile viaggiatrice e giramondo, trova nelle Love Bag fedeli alleate per conservare come tesori tutto ciò che le sta a cuore, inclusi preziosi amuleti che la accompagnano nelle sue avventure su due ruote. Dalle tote in canvas alle pouch dallo spirito boho-chic fino alla nuova borsa foulard, morbida e capiente con il suo mix di eleganza e praticità.

Sono tanti i ricordi collezionati lungo la strada... l'arrivo a Plaza de la Republica, la strada più grande del mondo che attraversa il cuore di Buenos Aires, è trionfante.

Alle spalle i chilometri percorsi, di fronte un futuro ancora tutto da costruire.

PINKO GARAGE

SPRING/SUMMER 2025 COLLECTION

Start your engines! It's PINKO Garage time.

Adventurer at heart, the PINKO woman defies conventions with style and charm.

Return ticket in hand, at the airport in Rio De Janeiro, where her adventure on two wheels has just ended, something is holding her back-it's not time to go home yet. New York can wait.

On a ledwall appears a promo of a new motorcycle venture...it starts in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and ride 5.600 miles through the most uneven terrain, from sand dunes to mountains, from desert to salt lakes, all the way to the Chilean coast and return.

Back to the city, on a narrow street in the bohemian neighborhood of Santa Teresa she finds the perfect space to shape his PINKO Garage.

The preparation is complex and complicated, but adrenaline runs through the veins.

It's almost time to leave.

As in any self-respecting workshop, the jumpsuit cannot be missing, in butter-colored cotton or in a total black muslin with a languid and silky hand.

Workwear details punctuate the collection, from zipped vests to be worn on the skin like new tops imbued with urban coolness, to mini dresses with flounces combined with lace second skin leggings for an eye-catching game of layering.

The countdown has begun, it's time to move to the streets of Buenos Aires and to immerse in a true competitive spirit with damier patterns in classic combinations of black or white, but also in fiery red or lime yellow variants, always super glam and feminine: in sequins in tank tops worn with T-shirts studded with patches or capri pants with racing-style inlays, in lace on trousers, shorts and tank tops combined with balloon skirts in metallic fabrics with a silver foil effect.

The sporty and active soul of the PINKO woman translates into tracksuits with contrasting patches and bands with a Seventies vibe and bomber jackets combined with micro skirts with a girly spirit.

While in Chile among the dunes she casually shows off leather jackets with flame inlays by the PINKO Garage Team, her more feminine side is revealed when she chooses off-shoulder dresses with balloon volumes or opts for the seductive lightness of devoré blouses and trousers... South American starry nights awaken her romantic side.

A tireless traveler and globetrotter, she finds faithful allies in the Love Bags to preserve everything she holds dear as treasures, including precious amulets that accompany her on her adventures on two wheels. From canvas totes to pouches with a boho-chic spirit to the new scarf bag, very soft and roomy with its mix of elegance and practicality.

So many memories are collected along the way...the arrival at Plaza de la Republica, the world's largest street that runs through the heart of Buenos Aires, is triumphant. Behind her thousands miles traveled, in front of her a future yet to be imagined.
